

Flat Character Arc Worksheet

What is the character's moral or belief system at the start of the story?
Brainstorm five possible examples to show this.

Brainstorm five ways this belief might be tested in the story.

Brainstorm five situations where your character stays true to their beliefs despite the obstacles they face.

Brainstorm five situations that show how the character's moral compass keeps them on the right path.

Brainstorm five ways the character provides stability or support for the other characters.

Brainstorm five ways the character's beliefs solve a major problem or mistake that occurred because people ignored them.

Brainstorm five ways the character could change another character's views by the end of the story.
